

JUDICIAL PROFILE

Peter C. Reinstein served as a court commissioner from November 1995 until his judicial appointment in December, 1998. He served as the presiding commissioner for Family Court from 1995 to 1997 and then moved to the Criminal Department from 1997 to the time he became a judge. His first judicial assignment is with the Criminal Department. Before becoming a court commissioner, Judge Peter Reinstein was the bureau chief of the Criminal Trial Division of the Maricopa County Attorney's Office.

Judge Peter Reinstein earned his B.S. in 1971 and his J.D. in 1974 from Indiana University. He was admitted to the State Bar of Arizona and Indiana in 1975. Thereafter, he served as the law clerk for the Hon. Jack L. Ogg of the Arizona Court of Appeals until May 1976 when he joined a law firm where he practiced in the area of commercial litigation. He volunteered his expertise as an arbitrator for Superior Court. He is an active public speaker at schools and community groups throughout the Valley. He currently serves on the Peer Review Committee, Criminal Rules Committee and Criminal Jury Instruction Committee of the State Bar of Arizona. Judge Peter Reinstein also serves on the Board of Directors of the Camelback-Arcadia Homeowners Association and as a mentor at the Thomas J. Pappas School.

